

From knowing to deep understanding - Engaging with Global Concepts through the curriculum

What does this event cover?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants will gain an understanding of what a concept is as an organising idea and mental construct • Understanding of the what and why of Concepts at different levels of scale - Global, Macro & Nested • Understanding of the benefits of engaging with Global Concepts (e.g. Rules, Systems, Culture) through the curriculum • Understanding of the hallmarks of an effective Concept driven curriculum • Ability to apply Concepts in the design and delivery of curriculum
Who is this event for?	Teachers in all phases who wish to better understand how Global Concepts (big Ideas that span multiple subjects) can be used to facilitate and implement curriculum, shape teaching, and aid the move from knowing to a deep understanding within the process of learning. Middle Leaders and Senior Leaders who would like to enhance their understanding of the role Global Concepts can play in shaping curriculum, teaching and learning.
Sessions	1
Date & Time	Tuesday 18th January 2022, 16:30 - 17:30
Event Category	Camden Learning - Leadership and Management / Camden Learning - Leadership and Management
Target Audience	All School Staff
Tutor(s)	Richard Donnelly
Venue	Virtual CPD Session
Event Code	CAM09/15643

Visit us now for further information, costs and to book your place on this event